A History of Hospitality

In the early 1980s, the Samuels family set forth on a remarkable odyssey, a narrative that would forever redefine the Pocono Mountains' character. The journey ignited in a humble restaurant nestled in Pompton Plains, NJ, an enterprise where hearty meals and warm smiles were served daily. Little did the Samuels family know that their culinary passion and commitment to exceptional hospitality would plant the seeds of a remarkable vision.

With resolute determination, they took their first step into the Pocono landscape, acquiring a modest 6-bedroom property. This marked the inception of Diamond Tree Resorts, the beginning of a story that would capture hearts and minds.

As if carried by the winds, news of the delectable fare and inviting ambience began to whisper through the mountains. The word swiftly spread that Diamond Tree Resorts was more than just a place to stay; it was an experience woven with genuine care, where every guest felt like family.

With each passing year, the resort's vision expanded, embracing the dream of becoming an unforgettable destination. It was a journey paved with innovation and a relentless pursuit of excellence. The humble 6-bedroom bed and breakfast evolved into a sprawling sanctuary that redefined luxury in the Pocono Mountains.

Today, Diamond Tree Resorts is a testament to the Samuels family's indomitable spirit and enduring dream. It stands with the majestic Pocono Mountains as its backdrop, a symbol of indulgence, adventure, and relaxation.

As our capacity expanded to accommodate over 2,000 guests, we've cherished every moment, every story, and every smile that's graced our retreat. Our legacy speaks volumes of a dream fulfilled, of passion translated into reality, of family values etched in each stone and each smile.

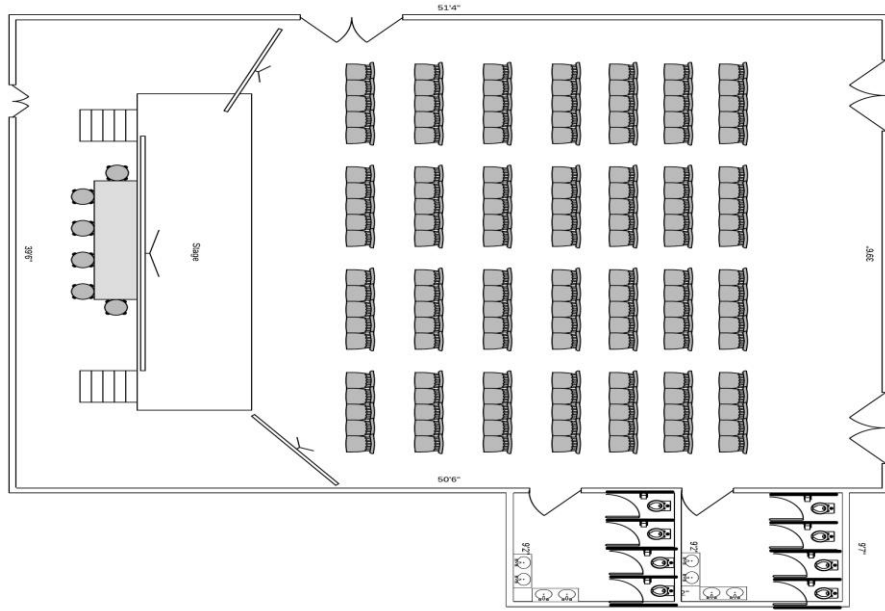

For two incredible decades, our hallmark has been the outstanding Corporate Retreats program. It's here, under the Pocono skies, that some of the world's most eminent companies, including the likes of Google and Goldman Sachs, have found inspiration and innovation. This program, a true jewel in our crown, is a place where success meets serenity, where the spirit of adventure ignites fresh ideas, and where collaboration takes on new dimensions.

The Samuels family's vision remains as vibrant as ever, their legacy etched in the very heart of Diamond Tree Resorts. It's a journey that transcends time, a story that knows no boundaries, and a destination where dreams come true. Welcome to Diamond Tree Resorts, where our tale is intertwined with yours, and where your story becomes a part of our ever-evolving legacy.
